

PUBLIC NOTICE

Special Exhibition at The Bank of Mauritius Museum to mark the 125th Anniversary of Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam, K.C.M.G.

12 September 2025

The Bank of Mauritius (Bank) announces the opening of a special exhibition at its Museum to commemorate the 125th birth anniversary of late Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam, K.C.M.G.

Titled "A historical perspective: Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam and the central bank", the exhibition provides an overview of the illustrious tribune's work to build the nation's financial architecture. The exhibition, which offers an insight into a significant chapter of the nation's development, highlights the historical context and underlines Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam's vision that led to the country's central bank.

The exhibition brings history to life through a curated collection of archival documents, photographs and numismatic items, including commemorative coins issued by the Bank, and which form part of Mauritius' socioeconomic heritage.

The Bank extends an invitation to members of the public to visit this unique exhibition which will run as from the 15th of September 2025.

Exhibition Details:

- Venue: The Bank of Mauritius Museum, Sir William Newton Street, Port Louis
- Duration: 15 September to 19 September 2025
- Visiting Hours: Monday to Friday from 09h30 to 16h00
- Admission: Free of charge

For enquiries, please contact the Bank of Mauritius Museum by email (museum@bom.mu) or by phone (+230 202 3800).